

Abstract

Chemical compounds and compositions are disclosed which comprise peptides composed of D-enantiomers of amino acids and capable of binding to β -strand structures to form β -sheets, said peptides being selectively $N\alpha$ -substituted to prevent further β -strand association. The peptides are useful for preventing β -strand association.

10030138 "042902"